

[WORKSHOP]

Workshop on English corpora by Peter Petré and Hendrik De Smet
Thursday March 28 2013 between 12:00-14:30
MSI 02.08

The workshop offers a practical introduction to three new historical corpora of English, covering the entire Old, Middle and Modern English periods. In addition, it gives an overview of the currently available corpus resources for English corpus linguistics, and discusses the tools that can be used for doing corpus research. Anyone interested in English, digital text collections or historical linguistics is welcome to participate.
